The following certificate is appended to each statement:

We therefore desire and certify that by the greater number of votes polled at such election, ALEXANDER W. RANDALL was duly elected Governor; ERANUS D. CAMPBELL, Lieutenant Governor; DAVID W. JONES, Secretary of State; SAMUEL D. HASTINGS, State Treasurer; GABRIEL BOUCQ, Attorney General; LYMAN C. CRAPER, State Auditor; JAMES C. COOPER, State Comptroller, and EDWARD M. MCGRAW, State Prison Commissioner; for a term of two years, commencing on the first Monday in January, A. D. 1857.

Given under our hands, at the Capitol in Madison, this fourteenth day of December, A. D. 1857.

D. W. JONES, Secretary of State.

CHARLES KIRHN, State Treasurer.

The vote on the question of colored suffrage is given as follows:

FOR AGAINST.

Not counting supplements, 28,074 60,915.

Counting 28,245 41,945.

The City Taxe.

For two or three days back there has been a great deal of talk about town concerning the city taxes, and there are those who say "they won't and can't pay them."—Madison Patriot.

Perhaps the sentiment most heartily responded to at the great meeting of our Tax-Payers at Albany Hall, on Thursday evening, was that uttered by one of the speakers: "I could not pay taxes this year, if I would, and I could not if I could."

REPUBLICAN EXTRAVAGANCE.—The Republican Legislature of Vermont at its recent session raised the salary of their Governor from $700 to $1000 a year. We are amazed at this prodigality. Our Vermont brethren should come to Milwaukee and take lesson in economy from our Democratic Common Council, who have this year fixed the salary of the Comptroller, including clerk hire, at $4,000; City Clerk, the same; City Attorney (who costs real) $2,800; City Treasurer $4,000—and so on. These salaries are higher than any others paid in the State and ought to be "retrenched" from 20 to 50 per cent.

Mr. COMMISSIONER MCGRAW.—The News of yesterday, lauding the defeat of Mr. McGraw, the democratic candidate for State Prison Commissioner, that explains the mishap:

The truth is, that a more bitter and uncompromising opposition was brought against Mr. McGraw than any other man on the ticket.

"The truth is," said Mr. McGraw, "that he received the full party vote he must have been elected. Whatever of 'bitter' and uncompromising opposition was brought against him, came from his democratic brethren."

GROWTH OR HOUSING.—The Hudson Chronicle gives some statistics of that peace and plank, directly opposite. During this year, there have been built 6 mills, 3 public buildings, 24 stores and shops, and 5 dwelling houses, at a cost of $236,500.

VETERANS OF THE WAR OF 1812.—It is said there are about 200 persons in this State, emigrants from New York, who claim pensions for their services in the war of 1812. A bill has just been introduced in Congress, granting pensions to all the American soldiers in that war who survive.

LOIS MONTES, Countess of Lanzas, is soon to be married to a foreign prince. The bridegroom, it is stated, is the Prince Siskowit, who is blessed with the following array of titles: Prince of Bistritz, Count of Reissen, Count of Schomau, Count of Kobelin, and Count of Lanza. His estates are situated in Austrian Silesia. He has been residing, however, for several years, in the northern part of New York State, on a farm, which he purchased and still owns. He is about forty years of age. It is stated that when married he will return at once to Austria.

There is not much regularity in the arrival of the "packers" in this town, and this number of "packers" have not been employed to carry the mail from this way, and between three and four hundred houses have accumulated here.—Waukesha Cent.

A party of men arrived here last Wednesday, and the "packers" from Green Bay, which place they left on Monday the 20th ult. The party was conducted through by Mr. Duren, formerly a resident of this place, and who has long been familiar with the trail.—Waukesha Cent.

The "Official" Editor.

The News is evidently in a most uncomfortable position with regard to the pending struggle in Kansas and at Washington. On the one hand its allegiance to the Administration, and the snub birth in the Post Office. On the other is its devotion to Douglas and its fear of a general democratic break-down on this unlooked for and unwelcome issue. One day, the News lauds the wisdom and patriotic of Mr. Buchanan and ridicules the idea that there can be any permanent difference among good democrats on a trifling question as this of Kansas.—

The next, it publishes in full a speech of Senator Douglas, taking ground against the Administration, and heartily endorses its general tone and argument. Yesterday, the programme is varied a little, and by way of compromise between the commanding Democratic champions, the News proposes to hold the "Black Republicans" strictly and solely responsible for the LeCompton iniquity and all its political consequences. Hence—

We are therefore justified in saying, and now we understand it, that the Kansas Constitutional Convention was cleared away by the republicans, and that whatever sin it guilty of, are the fine of the fine.

It is clear, therefore, that even if the LeCompton Constitution is "active and determinative," it was not, and is not, to have a hope. The fact is now fixed that on the issue which involves the present and future of the Territories, the party of the people vote, and in this conviction we are strengthened rather than weakened by Judge Douglass' elaborate position towards the Administration. When that emphatic announcement, however, was made, it ceased to have a hope.
